Awareness Toolkit
2022 National Election

How To Use This Toolkit

How to use this toolkit

This document presents a selection of curated posters, social media graphics and key messages that provide electoral information to the public for the candidate nomination process for the 2022 National Election. Each message and content piece has been approved by the PNGEC.

The PNGEC encourages all members of the Provincial Awareness Steering committee (PASC), the Provincial Awareness Training Officers (PATOs), the Electoral Outreach Network (EON), faith-based institutions and civil society to share these materials widely within their networks.

This toolkit includes a brief overview of each content piece, paired with the intended target audience and guidance on how to deploy this content in a targeted way. For those interested in deploying the content, please click on “link to content” to download the content in a size suitable for a specific digital platform.

How to deploy this content in a targeted way

Your office

- Print and display the posters in public areas such as notice boards
- Email e-copies of the posters to your contact database
- Circulate the digital posters to your contacts via WhatsApp groups (or other platforms)
- Community outreach
- Print posters and display in public places that generate a lot of foot traffic such as major trade stores, marketplaces, bus stops and public notice boards.
- Print posters and provide them to health clinics and community health posts so they can put the up information in public areas.
- Organize community awareness sessions with CSOs, FBOs, DPOs
- Consult Provincial events such as sports shows and cultural shows (stalls and announcements) and issue awareness information
- Host an awareness session for local community leaders
- Display posters on e-billboards
- SMS key messages to your contact database
- Give copies to intending candidates and political parties in your province
- Share with the Electoral Outreach Network in our area
- Print and share at local health centers
- Share as news items and notices in local newspapers

Radio

- Contact Provincial Radio Stations and share the key messages with them for use in their prime-time programs.
- Try to include key messages in radio community announcements which are free of cost.
- Participate in radio interviews and panel discussions and talk back radio shows
- Invite radio station to broadcast from Provincial Electoral Commission Office

STOP THE SPREAD

Youth

- Engage local youth organizations and trusted youth leaders to co-host awareness sessions and disseminate awareness materials.
- Publicize the posters in youth magazines in your region
- Share with local youth influencers who are popular, trusted and non-partisan online

Persons with disabilities

- Provide the toolkit to Disabled Peoples Organizations (DPOs) so they can create awareness amongst their networks and produce messages into plain language guides, and translate and transcribe into accessible formats
- Liaise with organizations that work with persons with disabilities, their caregivers and other relevant Government institutions to mobilize and disseminate awareness materials

Women

- Provide the toolkit to women's organizations in your province so they can create awareness amongst their networks
- Avail voter awareness materials in areas that women frequent during their day-to-day activities such water points, markets, co-operatives, salons, and places of worship.
- Engage local women's organizations, women's groups and trusted women elders to co-host awareness sessions and disseminate awareness materials

Faith Based Organizations and Churches

- Provide toolkit to Church administration so they can print out posters and stick them around the chapel.
- Contact the local Pastors and arrange a time to speak to the congregation after mass.
- Contact the Church Women and Youth group leaders to spread the message amongst their networks.
- Host sessions with them to teach them about the process so they become a reference point for their networks.

Media

- Hold a briefing for local media in the province regarding candidate nominations and answer questions on what, where, why, when and how?
